

Jupyter Notebook Keyboard Shortcuts for Command Mode

Note that when a new cell is created, by default it will be a code cell.

Keyboard Shortcuts for Navigation in Command Mode

Up Arrow (or k)	Select cell above
Shift + Up Arrow (Shift + k)	Select multiple cells above
Down Arrow (or j)	Select cell below
Shift + Down Arrow (Shift + j)	Select multiple cells below

Keyboard Shortcuts for New-Cell Insertion and Cell-Type Conversion in Command Mode

a	Insert new cell above currently selected cell
b	Insert new cell below currently selected cell 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6	Convert cell to a level-# Heading cell
y	Convert selected cell(s) to a code cell
m	Convert selected cell(s) to a markdown cell
r	Convert selected cell(s) to a “raw” cell

Keyboard Shortcuts for Scrolling in Command Mode

Space Bar	Scroll down
Shift + Space Bar	Scroll up

Keyboard Shortcuts That Toggle Line Numbers and Output in Command Mode

l (lower case L)	Toggle line numbers in current code cell o	Toggle output pane in current code cell
Shift + o	Toggle output scrolling in current output pane

Keyboard Shortcuts for Cut/Copy/Paste/ Delete/Undo/Merge in Command Mode

x	Cut selected cell(s) c	Copy selected cell(s)
v	Paste (cut or copied) cell(s) below
Shift + v	Paste (cut or copied) cell(s) above dd	Delete selected cell(s)
z	Undo last deletion
Shift + m	Merge cell below

Keyboard Shortcuts for Kernel Commands in Command Mode

II (that's capital-i capital-i)	Interrupt kernel
00 (that's zero zero)	Restart kernel